In Sympathy

Dennis Harrington
 Denise Tobin

Longtime AOH member, Dennis Harrington, passed away on December 12, 2022. He served in both the US Marine Corp and US Air Force National Guard-- a total of 37 years--retiring with the rank of Colonel. Dennis was a true Irishman--loyal, persistent, and without a doubt dedicated to his country.

Denise Tobin, longtime supporter of the AOH, passed away on December 22, 2022. She was wife to past AOH officer, Mike Tobin, mother of past AOH president, Jonathan Tobin, and grandmother to member, Hunter Tobin. Denise was profoundly involved in CYO athletics at Holy Cross School, and was the recipient of the CYO's "Msgr. Albert Busald Award" in 1995 and the "St. John Bosco Medal" in 2004. She will be remember as a brave and courageous woman who lived with extraordinary strength and determination.

Jan. Meeting Notes

New Business

All committees of the St. Patrick's Celebration reported that preparations are on track.

Donation

$200 to Holy Cross School in memory of Denise Tobin.

Liam & Liam

With their former band, “Fling”, Liam & Liam have played concerts throughout the world –from Galway to Graceland, Donegal to Denmark, Cork to China.

Liam Carroll, from Co. Galway, is a singer, guitarist, mandolin player, banjoist and harmonicist. The other half of the band is Liam Conway. Conway is a singer, arranger, and multi-instrumentalist from Connemara’s Gaeltacht region.

Now, they play at some of the finest public houses and establishments in Co. Galway. Together, the Liam’s form a dynamic duo that have received international acclaim for their own compositions. Plus, they play many traditional folk and ballad songs... but with their own style.

This is real Irish music...from the shores of Galway Bay!
